Scenes from 1982 Railroad Festival

THE ABOVE PHOTOS show a variety of scenes from this past weekend's Tenth Annual Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival. The Festival, which drew in excess of 10,000 people, was termed an overwhelming success by festival participants and observers. The Railroad Festival, which is the Appomattox community's major event each year, appeals to many because it represents a slice of small-town Americana, evident in everything from the homemade crafts to the home-cooked food sold by church and civic groups. The above photo collage was made possible by the merchants and individuals listed below.
